YOUR JIM GOODWIN MASK

©The Press and Journal/Evening Express

BANNED!

It worked when Charlie Allan wasn't allowed to do his job at Tannadice – so we thought we'd do it again for Jim Goodwin!

Aberdeen gaffer Goodwin has been harshly treated by the SFA following his comments about Hibs' Ryan Porteous last month, and his eight-match ban - with six games to be served now - means he won't be in the dugout for Saturday's tussle with Dundee United.

If you're one of the 4,000-strong Red Army travelling to the game for the 6pm kick-off, show your support for the Dons boss with one of our Goodwin masks.

Instead of just one Goodwin in the stands, there will be a sea of them and - for one night only - you, too, can be the best-looking manager in the top-flight!

HOW TO MAKE THE MASK

1 Simply paste this page to a piece of card or stiff paper and cutout around dotted lines.

2 Then punch holes at the side and attach a piece of string or elastic to fit around your head.