

WHALE FISHING IN THE OLD DAYS

AN INTERESTING LOCAL RECORD.

In reviewing the marvelous progress made by Aberdeen and other ports in the north of Scotland during the last century, a tone of complacency is pardonable...

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY IN ABERDEEN.

A BUTCHER STABBED TO DEATH.

ANOTHER DANGEROUSLY WOUNDED.

FLIGHT OF THE ALLEGED MURDERER.

SPEEDY APPREHENSION.

James Harrow (33), butcher, 61 Park Street, was apprehended by the Aberdeen Police last night on a charge of having murdered William Tastard (40), butcher, 13 Marlborough Street, and seriously wounded David Ewing, butcher, South Constitution Lane, by stabbing them with a butcher's knife in the Salton Bar, Frederick Street.

At a late hour this morning it was ascertained that the alleged murderer had fled from the Salton Bar, and was subsequently apprehended by the Aberdeen Police.

William Tastard, the murdered man, belonged to a family well known in Aberdeen. His mother, Mrs. Tastard, was a widow, and he had a large family.

Mr. Tastard was a well-to-do man, and he had a large family. He was a member of the Aberdeen Town Council, and he was a prominent man in the community.
